

Proud To Be . . .

Nearly all people in America have ancestors that originally came from other countries. To help your child appreciate his or her special lineage, please read and answer the following questions with your child. If you are uncomfortable answering any question, you do not need to answer it.

Please return by _____

Child's Name _____

Father's Name _____ Mother's Name _____

Who was your first ancestor to come to the United States of America from another country? _____

When did your ancestor come to the U.S.A.? _____

What was your ancestor's native language? _____

How do you say "HELLO" in that language? _____

How did your ancestor get to America? _____

Did your ancestor come alone or with family or friends? _____

Why did your ancestor choose to come to the United States? What did your ancestor hope to gain? _____

Did your ancestor become a U.S. citizen?

